2017

Doc Schoenbaum - Harvey Cohen

Award Winner

James P. Regan

James P. Regan is the Chairman and CEO of Army Ranger Lead The Way Fund. In October of 2007, Mr. Regan co-founded the organization in honor of his son, Sgt. James J. Regan, who was killed in action in Iraq on February 9, 2007 while serving with the 3rd Battalion, 75th Ranger Regiment. The Army Ranger Lead The Way Fund was created as a way to give back to Jimmy's brothers in arms, the U.S. Army Rangers. Through health, wellness and financial aid programs, Lead The Way Fund provides support to the families of Rangers who have died, have been disabled or who are currently serving in harm's way around the world. After seeing first-hand the tremendous need, Mr. Regan has made it his mission to fill the gaps for these men that the government is unable to. In 2015, he was inducted as an Honorary Member of the 75th Ranger Regiment Hall of Fame for his dedication to the men and families of this elite unit.

In 2017, Army Ranger Lead The Way Fund was honored with the prestigious Patriot Award, established by the Commander of the United States Special Operations Command in 2007, which recognizes individuals who greatly support SOF wounded warriors, their families, or surviving family members by providing significant and enduring contributions.

Mr. Regan, who officially retired in 2009, has over three decades of experience in the financial services industry, with extensive experience in interest rate trading and capital market credit sales. Prior to co-founding Army Ranger Lead The Way Fund, Mr. Regan was Senior Vice President of Capital Markets at Keefe, Bruyette and Woods specializing in investment portfolio and balance sheet management.

Mr. Regan's love and passion for the game of Lacrosse started at a young age. He grew up in Massapequa Park playing High School Lacrosse, then went on to play Club Lacrosse at the University of Miami, where he graduated with a Bachelors in Business Administration (BBA) specializing in Finance.

With three young girls at home and nowhere to play lacrosse, Mr. Regan, a Director of Manhasset PAL, was inspired to develop the Women's Lacrosse Program for the Manhasset Community and is responsible for the fundamental success of the Manhasset Program. Mr. Regan is a member of the Manhasset Lacrosse Hall of Fame.

Mr. Regan and his wife Mary reside in Manhasset, New York. They have three daughters and five beautiful grandchildren.
