2018 Doc Schoenbaum Award Winner

The Long Island Metropolitan Lacrosse Foundation, a chapter of US Lacrosse, proudly invites you to join us on September 27, 2018 for the 28th annual Bernard "Doc" Schoenbaum – Harvey Cohen Golf Classic at the Tam O'Shanter Club in Upper Brookville, New York. This year we are proud to honor Eamon McAnaney

McAnaney debuted in 2011 as a network contributor appearing on SNY's sports and entertainment news shows before moving to a full-time position with the network in January 2017.

McAnaney a native New Yorker, attended The Hill School before matriculating and graduating from the University of Notre Dame where he lettered in lacrosse and served as captain his senior year. Upon his graduation, Eamon started his television career as a production assistant at ESPN in 1992. Eight years later, he became an on-air personality working as a weekend anchor in Bangor, Maine. McAnaney moved back to the New York area to become the sports director for the Channel 10 News in Palisades Park, New Jersey. In 2001, Eamon returned to appearing on-air as a sports reporter and news anchor with News 12.

In 2007, McAnaney was named analyst for MSG's high school lacrosse game of the week and later that year started covering lacrosse for ESPNU. By 2010, he had become ESPNU's lead play by play announcer for college lacrosse and has been the on-air talent for regular season, NCAA tournament and Championship Weekend through 2015.

Eamon continues to serve the game of lacrosse, serving as a member of the board of Citylax as well as working to grow and develop the game of lacrosse in the five boroughs and throughout the metropolitan area.
